2. 다음 글의 빈칸에 들어갈 말로 가장 적절한 것은?

We are always setting goals for ourselves and working to make them happen. This gives us focus and ensures that we use our time and energy efficiently and effectively. It also provides us with a sense of purpose and direction. We know where we are headed and what we want to do, although quite often, due to forces outside our control, things do not go as we had planned—the flat tire on the way to the wedding, for instance, or the unforeseen flu virus—and we have to adjust to a postponement or create a whole new set of circumstances. Even positive turns of a fortune—an unexpected influx of cash—require us to be flexible and to reconsider our plans and priorities, sometimes in the blink of an eye. This is what happened when life throws us _____. The ability to accept what is happening and let go of our original expectations is the key when dealing with these unexpected turns of fate.

- ① gifts
- ② a stone
- ③ a curveball
- ④ difficulties

3. 다음 밑줄 친 부분이 나타내는 의미와 가장 가까운 것은?

Goal setting seems easy and sensible when you read it in a book. However, if changes were that easy you probably would have done it by yourself already! The reason it can be more difficult is that you may come across some road blocks that can stop you from reaching your destination or goal.

Musicians, mathematicians, scientists, artists, professional athletes often fall into 'Divers' category. They delight in the depths. When something interests a diver, they become transfixed. Divers aren't satisfied with beginnings or quick insights: they like to hang on for the whole ride.

- (A) A diver knows that if he delves deeper into knowledge of a flower, it will transform itself into biology, chemistry, into molecules, into atoms. And this makes a flower open up to become the universe itself.
- (B) For example, to a diver, a flower is a pretty thing on the surface, but he wants to go deeper and learn about its amazing structure, and even deeper until he sees the flower as a tiny world with an old and honorable history.
- (C) They need to see how things come together in the end. If they find there is no end, no bottom to what they study, it's because they've opened up a new depth, revealing new secrets and new puzzles, and then a diver is in heaven.

- ① (B)-(A)-(C) ② (B)-(C)-(A)
 ③ (C)-(A)-(B) ④ (C)-(B)-(A)

9. 다음 글의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

If you fill up every moment in advance with appointments, without any breaks except for lunch, you are bound to go home frustrated, nervous, and tense. The unexpected happenings need their time, too. Even with a light schedule in prospect, the incoming mail, visitors, and telephone may put enough demands on your time to create an overload. Experience will tell you that although you may not be able to anticipate specifics, there will be interruptions and distractions during the day that will take up your time. You need some slack time to handle whatever unexpected crises and opportunities come your way during the day. Leave holes in your schedule for recovery from a long interview, and set aside time enough to read the mail and catch up on paperwork. Try to get absolute musts out of the way early in the day so you will feel less frantic about interruptions and distractions.

- ① Difficulties of time management
 ② Shortcuts of successful interviews
 ③ How to get control of your time and your life
 ④ Effects of interruptions and distractions on your life

According to Monica Gagliano at the University of Western Australia, plants can "hear" their neighbors. To test this theory, scientists arranged chili pepper seeds around a sweet fennel plant, ①which releases chemicals to slow neighboring plants' growth. As expected, the seeds grew more slowly when ②exposed to the fennel but resumed a normal rate when it was removed. However, when the fennel was ③presented but sealed in a box, the chili seeds sprouted faster than normal. Scientists believe one chili seed alerts the others that fennel is nearby, ④spurring all of them to grow quicker.

The first people to write about the Moon were Babylonians, whose Creation stories known as Enouma Elish, ① composed almost four thousand years ago, said that the Sun and the Moon were born together. To the Babylonians, the Moon, which goes through its regular phases of appearing, growing larger, then disappearing again ② to be a perfect symbol of life. The Moon's cycle, so similar to the cycles of human female fertility, became closely connected to fertility rites. Because the Moon and the Earth are locked in an eternal dance in which the Moon's rotation is similar to ③ that of Earth's, we always see the same side of the Moon. Throughout history, people saw a human face in that Moon, a "Man in the Moon." One particular concept held that the Man in the Moon was an actual man who ④ had been transported to the Moon and nailed there as punishment.

17. 다음 글의 요지로 가장 적절한 것은?

Everything, absolutely everything, has a risk associated with it. Some people become racked with fear over the possible dangers for themselves, their loved ones, and their children. Think about this for a moment: over the last seven years fear of crime has dramatically risen, while the actual crime rate has fallen. People have become more afraid even as they have less to be worried about. The danger, as Franklin Roosevelt once suggested, is that the fear can become worse than the thing feared. Not leaving the house or keeping the kids from playing a sport or avoiding other things because we are afraid is no solution for possible danger. It is only a different danger. While we certainly need to make sensible decisions, we need to consider the downside of avoiding the things that make life worthwhile.

- ① Don't be overprotective.
- ② Confront your limitations.
- ③ Never reveal your weakness to others.
- ④ Raise your kids to overcome difficulties.
