다음 글을 읽고 물음에 답하시오 [19-20]

In the eleventh century christians from Europe disturbed by moslem treatment of christians in the holy land began to form groups to go to east. These bands of christians were called crusaders and their original intention was to defeat Islam and to restore the holy land to christianity. In this purpose the crusaders failed, for Islam was greatly extended after the last military expedition was over. However, some think that Europe was saved from Islam. The crusaders were influential chiefly in extending knowledge of geography, stimulating travel, promoting commerce and culture, and hastening the disintegration of feudalism.

19. Of what nature was the primary motive of the crusaders ?

- ① commercial ② educational
③ religious ④ agricultural

20. What was the influence of the crusaders upon feudalism ?

- ① They helped to destroy it.
② They strengthened it.
③ They had little influence either way.
④ They supported feudal chiefs.

정답: 15. ④ 16. ① 17. ② 18. ③ 19. ③ 20. ①
