13. Newspaper headlines scream almost with glee at a bloody murder; rape is good copy, and armed robberies get bigger headlines if there's lots of shooting involved. Television news thrives on the same diet of crime and violence, though newsmen can usually film only a pool of blood or a zipped-up body bag. Entertainment programing, however, can be tailor-made with all kinds of violent "action." Movies, now that there are so few real "family" movies to see, share similar tastes. Crime and violence are

18. It is a scientific opinion that stars _____.

- ① are active
- ② are calm and quiet
- ③ represent god's and heroes
- ④ are forever fixed

19. The movement of stars is _____.

- ① rather unwavering and star
- ② loose and inactive
- ③ rather erratic and individual

To the man on a hilltop, the stars seem placid cool, and forever fixed in the changeless patterns that the Greeks, Romans and Babylonians claimed represented their gods and heroes. But this is a delusion—the stars are as eccentric and bustling as anything in nature. They are fixed only in the limited sense that they appear fixed for a few generations, of human life. Although all stars were probably formed in the same way in a cloud of hydrogen gas that separated into distinct whirling blobs, they display considerable independence of personality. Some stars breathe, expending and contracting with perfect regularity ; some become novae, appearing suddenly brighter for a relatively short time. other stars have twins that spin with them in a perpetual dance and still others explode, creating supernovas so brilliant they can be seen in daylight.

- ④ reregular and constant

20. Scientist assume that all stars were formed _____.

- ① in a perpetual limitation
- ② by gods and heroes
- ③ with perfect regularity
- ④ in a cloud of hydrogen gas
