A Brazilian woman who has lived in the United States for many years was explaining why it was difficult for her parents and sister to come to visit her in the United States.

(가) "What happens if Congress disagrees with the President?" her American friend asked. "Oh", she replied, "the President can just tell the Congress to take a vacation, and then he can go on and pass new laws or do whatever he wants."

(나) When they return, they can get their money back, but no interest is paid on it. This was the decision of the Minister of Finance and the President, she said, and the Congress was not even consulted.

(다) Because the government wishes to discourage people from traveling abroad and spending their money in other countries, the Minister of Finance decided to require Brazilian tourists to deposit $1,200 in a special account before leaving the country.

문 6. 다음 글의 주제로 가장 적합한 것은?

Many women have prolonged difficulties achieving good sleep. As mothers, students, caretakers, and professionals, many of us lead hectic lives, filled with both obvious and subtle stressors that are on our minds as we attempt to settle into sleep. The sheer numbers of over-the-counter and prescription sleep aids give you an idea of how widespread insomnia is today. But the problem with these sleep aids is that even though they induce drowsiness, they do not promote real sleep — deep, lasting, and refreshing. And some of these agents, if taken over the course of months may lead to dependency or stop working altogether. Don't be surprised if your physician is not inclined to prescribe them.

- ① Women, as opposed to men, suffer from insomnia.
② There are many different kinds of pills for insomnia, but their safety isn't guaranteed.
③ Many women suffer from insomnia, but they need prescription to purchase sleep aids that help alleviate their symptom.
④ Many women suffer from insomnia, but doctors will never prescribe sleep aids for them.

문 8. 다음 글의 종류로 가장 적절한 것은?

In one of the most widespread man-made disasters the region has known, smoke from the fires has blanketed a broad swath of Southeast Asia this month.

Flights have been canceled around the region, the busy shipping lanes of the Strait of Malacca have been disrupted by low visibility, and millions of people are coughing and wheezing. It is impossible to say how many people have been made sick by the smoke.

The fires are mostly intentionally set. Hundreds of Indonesian and Malaysian companies - mostly large agricultural concerns, and some with high-placed Government connections - are using fire as a cheap and illegal means of land-clearing.
