Navajo Code Talkers

The Navajo Language assisted the military forces to defeat the enemy.

This web site is dedicated to my father, Harrison Lapahi, a Navajo Code Talker during World War II, the Navajo Code Talkers, the Navajo Platoons of 1941 to 1945, and all Navajo men and women who have stepped forth and gallantly fought in all of the U.S. great wars. These Navajo Warriors have been a vital part of every American war since their last treaty with the United States in 1868. It is the bravery and courage of these Navajos that helped to make the United States the free and proud place it is today.

Many Americans who staked their lives on the success of the Navajo view the Code Talkers contributions to the war effort as nothing short of monumental. One Marine Corps signal officer summed up the situation after the war: "Were it not for the Navajo Code Talkers, the Marines would never have taken Iwo Jima and other places". Nearly every Navajo has some connection to a Navajo Code Talker, whether it be a family member, distant relative or a friend who is related to one.
