115. 다음 글의 주제로 적절한 것은?

Hello, everybody! Today, I'm going to begin my talk by making a statement, which I'll then try to defend. My opening statement is: The English language is a thief. It steals words from other languages and this is one reason why it has the largest lexicon of all languages. English is thriving because it takes words from many sources, including ketchup from Chinese and shampoo from the Hindi language of India. An example of Tagalog words used unchanged in English is gaga. In English, it means odd behaviors resulting from the declining mental capacity of an old person.
