12. 다음 글의 주제로 가장 적절한 것은?

Since a basic vocabulary of 2,000 words, the core vocabulary, plays such an important role in English, some people have suggested that acquiring it will allow you to understand 80 or 90 percent of everything that you hear or read in English. In fact, things are more complicated than that. What actually happens is that with a vocabulary of 2,000 words, you can understand everything you see or hear a lot of the time, but other times you won't understand anything at all. It depends on what kind of situation you are dealing with. The core vocabulary will allow you to deal with a large number of ordinary everyday situations, but once you leave these predictable situations, you will find it hard to get by with only a restricted vocabulary.

Democracy is a system of government based on the assumption that all citizens have the right to participate in shaping the face of the society in which they live.

14. 다음 글의 "ice cream headache"에 대한 내용과 일치하지 않는 것은?

Not a lot is known about what causes "ice cream headaches" or "brain freeze" as these headaches are commonly called. Scientists know that this type of headache is triggered by cold food or drink hitting the roof of the mouth, but they still have no idea what causes the pain. One theory suggests that pain is caused because the blood vessels constrict from the cold.

Scientists do know that the pain reaches its peak somewhere between 25 and 60 seconds after eating or drinking something too cold and that the temperature of the forehead falls by almost two degrees. The pain typically lasts from a few seconds to a minute or two.

Although this type of headache can occur anytime, it is more common during very hot weather or when a person is overheated. Hot weather and ice cream seem to go together, which is probably the reason why most ice cream headaches occur in the summer.

- ① "ice cream headache"의 원인에 대해 명확히 밝혀진 것은 없다.
- ② 찬 음료수를 마시고 25~60초 정도 사이에 고통이 극에 달한다.

15. 다음 글의 주제로 가장 적절한 것은?

The ups and downs of life may seem to have no predictable plan. But scientists know there are very definite life patterns that almost all people share. Today, when we live 20 years longer than our great-grandparents, and when women mysteriously outlive men by seven years, it is clearer than ever that the 'game of life' is really a game of trade-offs. As we age, we trade strength for ingenuity, speed for thoroughness, passion for reason. These exchanges may not always seem fair, but at every age, there are some advantages.

Many non-Memphians think that I admire Elvis Presley and always attend the annual candlelight vigil near his gravesite on August 23, the anniversary of his death. They also think that I own all of his albums. I do live in Memphis. Elvis lived here, too. But, I do not make annual visits to his house.

I hope that you understand I resent the automatic association of Memphis with Elvis. I might sound cynical towards a man who has bolstered my city's economy so much, but I have a right to sound that way. Many worshippers tend to skip over the details of his life. His first albums are masterpieces, but from there his music and his life steadily decline. Elvis' heart failure was brought on by a massive drug overdose.

That is my frustration with Elvis. The man had everything but threw it all away. The story of Elvis taught me a lesson, though. Now, as I strive for success, I know how not to use any achievements that I may obtain carelessly. Elvis is a classic example of a man who was ruined by fame and fortune. So whenever I meet non-Memphians I do my best to convince them that I do not follow that cult of Elvis worshippers who account for three-fourths of all the tourists in Memphis.

- ① Elvis의 죽음은 지나친 약물 복용과 큰 관련이 있다.

One day a long time ago the God ordered Chicken, Dog and Pig to go down to Earth and do something kind for humans. Time passed and one day the God called for the three to appear before him again.

"Please tell me what you did to help them."

Chicken spoke first. "I informed them of the time. Everyday at daybreak I crowed to let them know it was time to get up and start a new day. Moreover, I provided them with eggs.", "Well, you certainly helped humans. I am going to award you this red ornament to wear on your head.", "Thank you, Your majesty.", "And what did you do for humans?" said the God, turning to Dog.

"I guarded their houses, Your Majesty.", "Why did you guard their houses?", "In the day time humans go out to work and at night they sleep very soundly, so I protected them at night.", "I see," said the God. "You also worked very hard for humans. As a reward I'm going to give you a fourth leg. Life should be much easier with four legs than with three.", "Oh, thank you, Your Majesty. I'll be always thankful," said Dog, bowing humbly.

"All right, Pig" said the God. "How did you help humans?", "Kkul, kkul", "What do you mean grunting like that?" stormed the God.

"I'm sorry, I tried to think of a way to help humans but Chicken and Dog already had. So, all I did was eat what humans gave me and sleep.", "You disobeyed me so I have to punish you." With one swing of his sword, the God cut off Pig's long nose. Ever since then, pigs have had short noses, chickens have had red coxcombs and dogs have lifted their hind leg when urinating so as not to make their gift from the God dirty.
